A Log of our intended passage by God's assistance in the Sloop Adventure, Francis Boardman, Master on Wednesday May 1774 from Mr. Hancock's wharf in Boston bound towards Guadaloupe.

May 6, 1774

Spoke with a sloop from Maryland bound to Ipswich, James Perkins master.

May 19, 1774.

We missed our dog we think he jumped over board.

May 28, 1774

Our vessel leaked a good bit every half hour.

May 31, 1774.

Came abreast of France and the Capt went ashore.

June 1, 1774

Spoke with a whaler from Boston. They told us the news about the tea affair in Boston.

June 2, 1774

Capt. George Williams sailed from here bound to Point Pitre. Thomas Lee sailed from Roseau to Point Pitre.

June 5, 1774

Capt. Batten of Salem sailed for home from Roseau.

June 6, 1774

Capt. Stephen Archer sailed from Roseau bound to St. Anns in Guadaloupe. Capt. Joseph White arrived here at Roseau at 4 o'clock.

July 19, 1774.

Came to anchor in Point Ritre. Harbor.

July 20, 1774.

Came to saile bound for St. Eustatia. George Williams went out with us.

July 23, 1774

Abreast of Old Rock in St. Christopher.

July 24, 1774

The Capt. went ashore to buy a barrel of bread. Capt. Williams came on board. They are now bound to Boston.

We are now bound from St. Eustatia to Boston.

Aug. 7, 1774

The ship sprung a leak. We could not keep it free with both pumps going we put about to go back to Martha's Vineyard. We found the hole almost filled with water. We put out a boat and got in provisions. At five p.m. the next morning we couldn't do a thing because there was so much water on board. Saw a sail standing to the N.W. At six o'clock we went on board her. We fastened to her and rode along with her.

Aug. 16, 1774

Came to anchor in Salem Harbor. On Sept. 29, we set sail from. Capt. Barker's wharf in Beverly bound to Guadaloupe.

Oct. 24, 1774

The boat was leaking so bad we couldn't carry sail.

Nov. 2, 1774.

Delivered to Capt. Dorn 1 dozen fowls, and also delivered 26 boxes of candles to one of Capt. Archers boats. We are now abreast of Dominico.

Nov. 7, 1774

Came to anchor in St. Lucia Capt. Boardman and the French capt went ashore. We caught one shark.

January 9, 1775.

Discharged John Barns.

Jan. 21, 1775

We sailed away for Eustatia.

Jan. 22,

Came to anchor in St. Eustatia.

A Log of our intended passage from St. Eustatia to Salem in the sloop Adventure came out of St. Eustatia Jan. 26.

Feb. 23, 1775.

Came to anchor in Salem Harbor. We were 27 days in all coming from St. Eustatia.

Most everyone employed at sundry jobs and the ship leaked most of the journey.
